Attend comprehensive training

The short course teaches:

- compliance with infection prevention and control polices and procedures;
- how to conduct manual tasks safely;
- how to meet personal support needs; and
- how to communicate and work in health or community services.

Attend a work placement with an employer

During your work placement, you will:

- gain real, hands on industry experience; and
- secure a 'foot in the door' by working with an employer.

Complete the program and become job ready to join the ageing and disability workforce

By completing the Ageing and Disability Job Ready Program, you may:

- be offered a job with your work placement employer;
- be offered an aged care or disability work traineeship;
- use your skills to transition into an allied health occupation;
- gain employer references;
- be connected with other employment opportunities within these sectors; or
- complete further studies.
