LIVESTOCK HANDLING SKILL SET

State ID AE403

Overview

Thanks to skilled workers on farms who handle livestock with care, WA produces some of the world's highest quality animal products. From mustering on stations in the outback through to wool or dairy production in the south west — here's your chance to get the skills and knowledge to be job ready to join this exciting industry!

This skill set is 100% fee-free for eligible students* including people aged under 25, jobseekers, and concession holders.

You'll learn about working with animal welfare legislation and how to handle and manage livestock in a safe way that minimises stress to the animals; basic techniques for handling livestock including understanding animal behaviour; identifying and drafting different livestock; and how to administer basic and routine medications.

Further study options

The units in this skill set may lead to the qualification listed below and other qualifications that allow selection of these units.
